New distributor in Belgium

MAAX Spas Europe is proud to announce that Schrauwen Belgium is our new partner for Belgium. Until 1979 Schrauwen was a professional installation company specialized in sanitary ware. From that year, Schrauwen decided to expand the company and started with business to business wholesale of sanitary, heating and wellness products and later on selling to consumers. Nowadays Schrauwen is a leading company in Belgium in the field of sanitary ware and wellness.

Change in MAAX colour range

There has been a change in the colour range for the MAAX Spas acrylics, as of 2012 the colours Quartz and Cobalt are no longer available, Cinnabar has been renamed Latte and two new colours have been added, Chenille and Tucsan Sun.

Furthermore, there has been a change in the cabinet colours. The colour brown has been replaced by the new colour teak.

The cover colours remain the same!
